1st International Week – School of Political Science “Cesare Alfieri”

Florence, 20-24 May 2019

Dear Colleagues,

The School of Political Science “Cesare Alfieri” of the University of Florence is pleased to announce its first International Week, which will be held from the 20th to the 24th of May 2019. Academic staff from partner universities will have the opportunity to give guest lectures and present their home institution to our students and faculty. It is also a valuable opportunity to improve students’ mobility and research cooperation. During that period, visiting Scholars will also have the chance to attend the closing conference of the Jean Monnet Centre of Excellence (22 May, titled “Shared Values and Global Challenges. Ideas for a New Renaissance in Europe”) and participate in a series of events organised as part of the international week, including an opening lecture (TBA) and a roundtable on the upcoming elections for the European Parliament.

Academics are welcome to propose lectures in a variety of topics (please check the application form for a complete list of available topics). The lectures are mostly targeted at students from our BA and Master Programmes. The teaching language is either English or Italian.

We will evaluate the content of each proposal and confirm if we can find a receiving lecturer on our side.

There is no participation fee. Participants shall use the Erasmus+ Staff Mobility programme to cover their travelling and accommodation expenses. We invite candidates to check the availability of such funding with their home institution. Please note that the Erasmus+ Teaching & Staff Mobility Programme requires visiting lecturers from partner universities to give a minimum amount of hours of lectures to be held in the host university, some of which might be given under the form of research seminars.

To apply for the International Week, please complete the application form and send it by email to relint@scpol.unifi.it together with your CV by 31 March 2019, we apologize for the short notice. Please note that you are required to indicate the course(s) – among those listed in the application form – that best match(es) your lecture(s).
