STUDYING IN SPAIN

Spain makes up a large part of the Iberian Peninsula, located in the extreme southwest of Europe. With an area of 505,955 square kilometers, Spain is the third largest country in Europe, behind Russia and France. Much of this area (493,484 km²) is the peninsular Spain, which must be added the archipelagos (Balear to the east and Canary, located more than a thousand kilometers to the south and near the Atlantic coast of North Africa). In addition, there are two Spanish cities located on the same coast of North Africa (Ceuta and Melilla). The population of Spain amounts to 40 million inhabitants. In 1978 (under the framework of the Constitution ratified in December of the same year), Spain became a democratic state, the parliamentary monarchy being agreed upon as a form of government. The capital of the country, Madrid, is where both the Royal Family and the Government live. Currently, Spain is composed of seventeen autonomous communities (Jaén is within that of Andalusia) and two enclave cities (Ceuta and Melilla), each governed by a Statute of Autonomy. Regarding religion, freedom of worship is guaranteed under the Spanish Constitution, although the vast majority of the population is of Catholic confession. In relation to the currency, since January 1, 2002, the Euro is used.

The Spanish educational system offers a wide range of university studies, highly prestigious international trade schools and the best opportunities to study Spanish as a foreign language, with a wide variety of courses. The education system is well structured and offers multiple possibilities for personal growth and academic success.

The system of higher education has experienced significant changes and extraordinary growth over the last 25 years, which allowed Spain to greatly increase the number of available university places. In addition, progress in numerous areas has facilitated university access to thousands of young people through the creation of a large number of new and well-equipped universities.

The Spanish university system gives students the freedom to decide what kind of education they want. The wide range of study options adapts to the diverse academic objectives of the students, satisfying the diverse interests, abilities and attitudes that they may have.

Spain is currently the third most popular destination in Europe for international university students. As a result, Spain has developed a diverse and multicultural student population that, over time, has forged the Spanish educational system as one of the most attractive in Europe.

THE PROVINCE OF JAÉN (www.promojaen.es)

Jaén is one of the eight provinces of Andalusia (www.andalucia.org), located north of the Autonomous Community. It constitutes an inner paradise of mountains, open and fertile fields and lowlands with millions of olive trees. Located at the entrance to Andalusia, Jaén has the largest area of protected natural areas in Spain. The Guadalquivir River is born here, in the heart of the Natural Park of the Sierras de Cazorla, Segura and Las Villas.

As a land of transitions and borders, Jaén has been a very important enclave in history. Establishing itself as one of the most important Iberian settlements on the Peninsula, it played a notable role in the Andalusian era and expanded its influence during the Renaissance and Enlightenment. Cities such as Úbeda and Baeza, Jaén and Alcalá la Real, are some living examples of these centuries. Today, after boarding the train towards modernity, the province of Jaén - composed of 97 municipalities - still maintains its most characteristic historical marks.

The seven centuries of Muslim influence in the Peninsula, shaped the history, culture, society and art of this province, since Jaén was part of Al-Ándalus, whose main pillars were the cities of Córdoba and Granada. The recovery, revision and presentation of this ancient splendor is the task of the Andalusí Legacy, a cultural and tourist initiative that tries to highlight the great importance of these centuries, in order to better understand the current era. The Andalusian Legacy has delineated two routes in the province of Jaén, the most important one being the Ruta de los Nazaríes, which runs through most of the provincial territory.
In addition, Jaén is known worldwide for producing the best olive oil in the world. Sixty million olive trees cover the land of Jaén and the substance extracted from them is the largest economic and social brand in the province. Jaén generates twenty percent of the world production of olive oil. The dozen oil presses spread throughout the province place it at the head of our national production, with an average of more than six hundred thousand tons of high quality oil each season. The best oil is called extra virgin, with which some of the most traditional dishes of Jaen gastronomy are prepared.

Halfway between Madrid and Seville, well connected by highway and rail, Jaén enjoys a pleasant and warm climate for most of the year. Entering this inner paradise, the traveler can be sure that he will receive a pleasant treatment and an unforgettable experience.

THE CITY OF JAÉN (www.aytojaen.es)

Jaén (arab: جيّان: Jayyân) is an Andalusian city, capital of the province of Jaén (and therefore, its administrative and industrial center, being of special importance the chemical sector, especially the distilleries, the manufacture of cookies and the textile factories). The inhabitants of the city are known as Jiennenses and their population amounts to more than 115,000 inhabitants.
One of the best known charms of Jaén is to walk through the city, visiting its ancient monuments, such as the Castle of Santa Catalina, the neighborhoods of La Magdalena, San Juan and la Merced, the old Hospital of San Juan de Dios, the Palace Villadompardo -the residence of the Museum of Art and Popular Customs, the Naif International Art Museum and the Arab Baths-, the Church of San Juan, the church of Santo Bartolomé, the Convent of Santa Clara, San Lorenzo’s Arc, Santa María square and, of course, the Cathedral, the most distinguished monument in the capital of Jaén. When visiting the contemporary city we will find the Palace of the Provincial Delegation, the Church of San Ildefonso, the Battles square, the Bernardas Convent, the Angel Gate, the Alameda Park, the Constitution square, the Park of the Victory, the Path of the Orchards, etc.). The city also boasts a good cultural life and festivals throughout the year (thanks to the Jaén International Piano Prize, literary prizes, International Jazz Festival, Holy Week, Feast of Our Lady of the Chapel and Saint Luke, etc.).

Jaén will always surprise you. You can enjoy a beautiful view of the white city under the castle of Santa Catalina and the modern city below. Behind, as a striking natural background, you can admire the rough saws and summits that enclose this splendid frame. You can breathe the Arabic essence still alive in the streets and squares, and in the Jewish quarter you will find traces of that ancient civilization. You can also admire a spectacular Renaissance in the city with palaces, churches and convents. Visiting the historical center you will also find valuable and contemporary architectural pieces and large parks that provide fresh air to the city. We encourage you to enjoy the beauty of Jaén and give your palate with its excellent cuisine that never forgets the wonderful extra virgin olive oil as a base...

[1] Brief general description

The UJA (University of Jaén) is a medium-sized public university (it has approximately 16,000 students and more than 800 members of the PDI, the majority of them being doctors) that was established in 1993 at the Campus Las Lagunillas, in the city of Jaén, where most of its centers are located (some faculties are also found in the cities of Linares and Úbeda):

The campus of Jaén (Las Lagunillas):

- Faculty of Experimental Sciences
- Faculty of Social and Legal Sciences
- Faculty of Humanities and Education Sciences
- Faculty of Health Sciences/Facultad de Trabajo Social
• Higher Polytechnic School of Jaén (EPS Jaén)

The campus of Linares:
  • Higher Polytechnic School of Linares (EPS Linares)

Both campuses are adapted to students with reduced mobility. In addition, the UJA has more than 30 departments (which are the main university units responsible for organizing and developing research and teaching) related to different university areas: business administration, anthropology, geography and history, chemistry, languages, etc. (For a complete list of the departments of the UJA and the corresponding contact information, please visit http://www.ujaen.es/home/departamentos.html). The UJA develops an important research work, with highly trained groups that develop national and international research lines and are well prepared to establish a collaboration oriented to the social and productive environment.

The University of Jaén is governed and administered by the following units:
  • Governing Bodies: http://www.ujaen.es/home/ogobierno.html
  • Services and technical units: http://www.ujaen.es/home/servicios.html
  • Powers: http://www.ujaen.es/home/centros.html
  • Departments: http://www.ujaen.es/home/dep

The so-called Vice-Rectorate for Internationalization is the unit in charge of the international relations of the UJA, in collaboration with the so-called International Relations Section. You can find more information about the international projection of the UJA below.

[3] UJA international projection (www.ujaen.es/serv/vicint/)

The UJA welcomes international students as part of an effort to increase its international profile, which is of utmost importance to the University, an institution that constantly strives to strengthen knowledge and horizons between different cultures.

The UJA has numerous agreements and collaborates actively with institutions around the world - in Europe (mostly within the framework of the Erasmus + program), USA, Canada, Costa Rica, Chile, China, Argentina, Brazil, Mexico, Singapore, Japan, Morocco, Australia, New Zealand, etc.-, welcoming students from all races, both official and exchange. Without a doubt, and thanks to its exceptional number of incoming and outgoing international undergraduate and graduate students, the UJA is becoming one of the most outstanding exchange destinations in southern Spain.

In addition, the UJA frequently participates in most of the international fairs that take place all over the world, as well as being present in numerous web pages of the international university relations area in order to be able to provide incoming international students with their stay in our institution.

[4] Academic calendar

The academic course of degree in the UJA is divided into two semesters: semester 1 (September - January) and semester 2 (January - June / July). The postgraduate academic calendar depends on the number (and duration) of the subjects of each graduate program. [5] Teaching language

The majority of subjects in the framework of undergraduate and postgraduate programs are taught and developed in the Spanish language (some basic knowledge about it is necessary), except those taught within the framework of the PATIE program, which offer teaching in Spanish or in English, French or German and make it possible for foreign exchange students to express themselves in class, consult the compulsory bibliography or carry out their official examination in English. The list of PATIE subjects is updated weekly and can be consulted at:
http://www.ujaen.es/serv/vicint/home/page/17/53

International students (without basic knowledge of Spanish) who wish to enroll as official students in the UJA are advised to complete an intensive year-long Spanish language and culture course at the Center for Advanced Studies in Modern Languages of the UJA
www.ujaen.es/centros/idiomas/index.html, cealm@ujaen.es

Since 1999 Spain has been immersed in the transformation of its higher education system, together with more than 30 European countries, with the purpose of creating a European Higher Education Area (EHEA), a process that has already finalized. Its objectives are both to standardize the grading system and the credit system (units to measure academic performance), as well as to guarantee standards and recognition of these qualifications, in order to increase student mobility and facilitate the integration of graduates to the European labor market.

Spain has implemented legal measures for the adoption of the European system of credits and qualifications, as well as the European qualifications supplement. This facilitates the official recognition of Spanish qualifications both in the countries participating in the EHES project and in non-European countries, such as the United States, Asia or Latin America.
In line with the implementation of the Bologna process and the European Convergence of Higher Education, the UJA has revised its study programs. These new plans include two cycles: Degree Studies (240 credits, 4 years), consisting of the basic education of the subject in question together with subjects oriented towards the professional needs of the students once they finish their studies, and Postgraduate Studies, committed to a more in depth teaching in the specific aspects of the subjects, together with the preparation for the professional application of the student's knowledge. This level, likewise, is divided into official Master's degrees (60-120 credits, 1-2 years) and Doctorate Program (which require, at least, to have previously completed 300 credits at both undergraduate and postgraduate levels). The European Credit Transfer System (ECTS) comprises a workload of 25-30 hours. Below you can see a graphic representation of this description of the levels of studies (undergraduate and graduate) of the

UJA:

Finally, it must be emphasized that the courses of the degree called Spanish Philology require an advanced command of the Spanish language (C1 or C2) to be able to complete them satisfactorily due to their high level of specialization and study of the Spanish language.

[8] Teaching methods and evaluation

The teaching methodology (undergraduate / postgraduate / languages) includes classes, seminars and practical work under the supervision of a tutor. Classes last 50-60 minutes and the teacher often uses audiovisual media as learning tools.

Students are evaluated through the final exams in January, in the case of the first semester of classes, or in June in the case of the subjects that take place during the academic year (or during the second semester only). Students who do not pass their compulsory exams have the possibility of attending the extraordinary June / July session. In some cases, teachers can opt for numerous evaluative activities (exams, projects, etc.) throughout the year, which, if completed successfully, can replace the final exam.

[9] Grading system

The Spanish rating scale is numerical from 0 to 10, with 10 being the maximum grade and 0 the minimum. In the UJA the following scale is applied:

[10] Housing

All incoming foreign students are responsible for finding their own accommodation in Jaén (and Linares) and, for this reason, it is advisable to do so well in advance of the arrival date. The possibilities of accommodation in Jaén are the following:

(a) Temporary accommodation in hotels and hostels (www.paginasamarillas.es) and in youth hostel (www.inturjoven.com/es/albergues/albergue-inturjoven-a-spa-de-jaen.html, aprox./day 23 €, necessary Youth Hostel Card).

(b) Permanent accommodation in:

(b1) Flats / Apartments (sharing or renting your own home, without maintenance): sharing a flat is the most common option among students who stay in Jaén for 3 months or more months. The monthly rent for a room ranges between € 150 and € 250 per person (water, gas, electricity and internet connection not included, which usually amount to € 60 / month approx.). In some cases, the tenants may be required to pay a deposit in advance, which normally equals one month's rent and is returned at the end of the stay. The floors are furnished (beds, tables, chairs and fully equipped kitchens), but there may be bedding or towels, which have to be provided by the student. Students who wish to look for a shared flat / apartment on their own must arrive in Jaén a few days before the start of classes (and stay in a hotel / hostel / youth hostel in the meantime) to be able to look for it (advertisements for flats for rent they can be consulted in telephone booths, throughout the city and on campus bulletin boards). On the other hand, if you want to rent your own apartment you will need the services offered by a real estate agency (www.paginasamarillas.es> Real estate agency). Students who wish to rent the apartment with the help of the real estate agency will have to bear the costs of these services that are equivalent to half of a rent, apart from the deposit (which equals one monthly rent that is returned once finished the stay) and the first month of rent. The prices of these apartments vary according to the number of rooms and range between 400 and 500 € per month for a one or two bedroom apartment. Students who wish to rent their own apartment with the help of a real estate agency should arrive in Jaén a few days before the start of classes (and stay in a hotel / hostel / youth hostel in the meantime) to be able to find it. In addition, the so-called Apartamentos Lope de Vega (http://www.apartamentoslopedevega.com/) offer affordable independent accommodation next to the campus.

(b.2) University Residences (single or double room, full board, approx 600 € / month, only available in the Lagunillas de Jaén campus): normally closed in summer and during Christmas and Easter holidays. For more information about prices, availability, opening period, meals provided, requests and reservation process, please visit the corresponding web pages:

- Domingo Savio High School (male and female / on campus): www.ujaen.es/serv/vicest/colegios_mayores/informacion.htm

The University of Jaén inaugurates in the academic year 2018/19 a new building destined to university housing, with social and environmental criteria, next to the University and the Bulevar http://www.alojamientosuja.com/.

For additional information you can also visit the UJA website https://www10.ujaen.es/conocenos/organos-gobierno/vicest/Alojamiento.

International students in the UJA who come from Member States of the European Community, European Economic Area, or Swiss nationals can benefit from the so-called European Health Card (http://ec.europa.eu/social/main.jsp?catId= 509 & langId = en) while they are studying in Spain (but, nevertheless, they need to contract additionally an insurance for repatriation, accidents, travel and civil liability).

The rest of the international students who wish to study at the UJA must contract a private health insurance (illness / hospitalization), repatriation, accidents, travel and civil liability to cover the entire period of their stay in Spain, and also provide all data necessary contacts of doctors or clinics in Jaén available (if they hire one before the departure date of their country of origin). These foreign students can also contract their insurance policy once they arrive in Jaén through any Spanish insurance company such as www.mapfre.es, oncampus, etc. (please, contact directly with the company to get information about prices and insurance coverage).

[12] Sport facilities, cultural activities and leisure time

The University is not just a place to study. International students can take advantage of an extensive program of social, cultural and sports activities. Once you are admitted to the UJA as international students, you can use any of the UJA facilities. Information on the sporting offer (skiing, tennis, aerobics, pilates, hiking, cycling, mountaineering, canoeing, basketball, football, etc.) and cultural activities (theater, cinema, conferences, guided excursions, music festivals, exhibitions, etc.) can be consulted online (www.ujaen.es/serv/safyd/inicio/index.html, www.ujaen.es/serv/vicext/cultura/). We also recommend all international students to provide their contact information to the ESN (International Student Association) to have the opportunity to register for trips and meetings organized by their members (info@esnjaen.org, http: //www.esnjaen.org /).

For more information on excursions and facilities of the Andalusian regional government, please visit www.inturjoven.com. Finally, if you are interested in a guided tour through Jaén or would like to join the Jaén leisure agenda please visit http://bonoturisticojaen.com/bonoturisticojaen/index.html and http://www.jaenow.es / respectively.
Do not forget that Spain enjoys the well-deserved reputation of guaranteed fun country. The main characteristics of the Spanish party are splendor, joy and imagination. The main events of the year (carnivals, religious festivals, pilgrimages, summer rites, etc.) transform the audience both active participants and passive spectators. Spanish festivals, a phenomenon that gives expression to the typically Spanish vitality, take place almost continuously in different places and different times of the year, so that the traveler can always find an occasion to witness these magical and spectacular events that alter the daily routine of the Spanish society.

[13] Library

The UJA has a General Library that contains more than 265,780 volumes, as well as magazines, electronic publications, etc. With an opening hours of 8:30 a.m. to 9:30 p.m. (Monday to Friday), the library is composed of 5 reading rooms, 4 study rooms (open for 24 hours during the exam period), 11 study rooms in groups, 4 audiovisual booths and 1 audiovisual room, a teaching room and 95 computers available to students. For more information, please visit http://www.ujaen.es/serv/biblio.
[14] Telematic Services

Apart from the rooms / laboratories belonging to a certain number of departments, nowadays in the UJA there are 21 computer rooms available for any student who wishes to use them both in the Campus Las Lagunillas and in the EPS Linares.

[22] General instructions for Exchange International Students

International students who are enrolled in a foreign university that has signed a bilateral agreement for the exchange of undergraduate and graduate students with the University of Jaén can study at the UJA for a semester or full academic year (data from partner universities can be consulted at www.ujaen.es/serv/vicint/home/convenios_en.php). Please bear in mind that if your home university is not included in the list of partner universities, you can contact the international relations office of your home university for one of its representatives to contact the International Relations of the UJA to establish a possible new agreement between both institutions (secrel@ujaen.es).

Before arriving at the UJA

It is mandatory that representatives of the international relations unit of the university of origin contact the International Relations Section of the UJA (secrel@ujaen.es) and confirm the names of the students selected for the exchange. Once the universities of origin realize their adjudications, they send to each university the information of which student is assigned to each place (nominations).
1. Subsequently, the selected students must:

Pre-registration and registration
Once the nominations of students sent by their universities have been received, students must pre-register, following the instructions sent via e-mail to students and universities. In the email received by the student IN, you are sent instructions on how to register at our University. This registration is made from a form to be accessed from the same mail. This form can change from Spanish to English language when desired by pressing the corresponding language in the upper right part of the screen.

Once pre-registered the system grants a login and password to the student, thus enabling that from that moment you can connect to Umove and register.

Once the student connects, the only option that appears is called My Placement.

From this screen the student has access to different options:
• Stay: access to the management of your stay.

• Selection of subjects: access to the selection of the subjects of your contract and you can obtain your mobility contract in PDF. You cannot access until you have your corresponding letter of acceptance signed.

• Documentation: access to the list of documentation that can be obtained or that is necessary for the student to contribute.

• Financing (students who receive help from the University of Jaén): access the details of their funding. You can not access until you have your corresponding letter of acceptance signed.
• On this screen, the student can manage all the documentation about your mobility grant. On this screen, the student can either obtain the different documents available to him or upload different documents that may be necessary for his mobility scholarship.

• One of the first documents that appear to the student is the 'Letter of Acceptance'. This document will have been automatically generated when the student has pre-registered and completed his / her stay. The acceptance letter shows the start and end date according to the four-month period of the stay, and when the letter is signed, an automatic notice is sent to the student ('notice of acceptance letter') indicating that you can download it.

• When the Letter of Acceptance is signed and available, the Coordinator of the University of origin will receive an email with a PDF file attached with the information of the subject proposal that will be presented to the student so that he / she can select among them.

• Students must upload the following documents to the umove platform:

  - Academic certificate
  - Copy of medical insurance, repatriation and civil liability.
  - Copy of the visa, if applicable.
  - Copy of the learning agreement for signature.

In turn, students can download their acceptance letter, their study contract, their certificate of arrival and stay, as well as their Transcript of Records.

Study contract: students must make their contract online, their passport and, if necessary, a visa through the platform. The Study Contract is the functionality in UMove that allows you to agree between the teacher and the student the subjects that the student will take at the University of destination and that will be recognized when they return to the University where the student usually studies.

From this screen you can also access the official model of the contract generated by the application, by clicking on the pdf icon: From that screen you can also access the official contract
From this screen you can also access the official learning agreement model generated by the application, by clicking on the pdf icon:
